

LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY REPORT

To be completed by the applicant:

Name: _____ First name: _____

Field(s) of study: _____

Language tested: _____

How long have you studied this language? _____

To be completed by a language instructor:

I. Comprehension

- a) Understands discussion of general and academic topics
- b) Understands conversation on simple academic topics
- c) Understands simple conversation
- d) Limited to slow, uncomplicated sentences
- e) Poor

II. Speaking

- a) Has full control over structural patterns; can handle a wide range of conversational situations
- b) Uses complex structural patterns, but not with consistent accuracy; adequate to participate in simple academic and conventional topics
- c) Uses basic grammatical structure, speaking with limited vocabulary
- d) Uses structurally simple, short phrases
- e) Poor

III. Writing

- a) Writes fluently and correctly using idiomatic expressions
- b) Writes on academic topics with only a few errors in structure and spelling
- c) Writes simple sentences on conventional topics, with some errors in structure and spelling

- d) Writes simple sentences with a limited vocabulary
- e) Poor

IV. Reading

- a) Understands sophisticated general and academic texts, including those in proposed field of study
- b) Understands texts which contain idioms and specialized terminology
- c) Understands conventional topics and non-technical subjects
- d) Limited to simple vocabulary and sentence structure
- e) Poor

V. Assessment:

What is your opinion of the applicant's ability to pursue university-level coursework in this language?

- a) Should have no difficulty
- b) Should be able to manage adequately after a short period of adjustment abroad
- c) Will require additional training before beginning the exchange program
- d) Will require considerable training before necessary competence can be attained

VI. Remarks:

LEVEL OF LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY (CEFR)

Name: Prof. ZORAN MAROSAN Position: SENIOR LECTURER

Place, date: _____ Signature: _____