

The GOALS OF THE PROGRAM are

1. to improve knowledge of high-school chemistry and biology with orientation to the topics and model questions for entrance exam
2. to provide future students with basic knowledge in Latin medical terminology, anatomy and physiology
3. to provide future students with linguistic basis, that is, language skills in Serbian and English to meet the needs of the study program and facilitate their integration into the context of higher education system at the University of Novi Sad and help the understanding of local culture and everyday life.